Incoming Exchange Student Application Guide

Application Deadlines: Fall Semester-Application should arrive by March 31
Spring Semester- Application should arrive by October 15

Thank you for your interest in North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University. In order to be considered for exchange, you must submit the following documents to the Office of International Affairs by the deadlines listed above:

- Application Form
- Photocopy of the ID page of your passport
- Language Proficiency Report
- Official transcripts
- Security Questionnaire
- Statement of Financial Support

Academic References

Complete the first section of each Academic Reference Form; read the waiver and sign it if you wish. You need academic references from two professors or instructors. Ask them to complete both sides of the form and return it to you in a sealed envelope with their signature overtop.

Language Proficiency Report

If you are from a country where English is not the official language, you must take the TOEFL exam. NCA&T requires a minimum score of 80 on the computer based test.

Official Transcripts

Please include official transcripts from the registrar of each college or university you have attended. Your application cannot be processed without official transcripts.

TOEFL scores of 80 on the internet-based test, 213 on the CPU test, and 550 on the paper-based test are required for participation as an exchange student.

14. Course Selection:

Using the North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University catalogue (available here) to search for courses (If the fall 2016 schedule is not yet available, search fall 2015 for now). List the specific courses (units/ modules) you would prefer to take on page 3. The final selection will be determined upon arrival at NCA&T, after meeting with an academic advisor. A typical course load is 12-15 credit hours each semester. Please note: after you arrive in Greensboro, you will have the opportunity to make changes to these course requests. However, it is recommended that you list as many specific course interests as possible to ensure that you are able to enroll in popular courses that may be full by the time you arrive in Greensboro.

If there are specific courses that your home university requires you to take while at NCA&T, please consider alternatives in case those classes are full when you arrive.

INSTRUCTIONS: Please answer all questions, making entries legible with a black or blue pen. Your signature is required. If this form is not signed, your file will be incomplete and your admission decision will not be determined.

Your “yes” answer to one or more of the following questions will require a written Explanation and will not necessarily preclude your being admitted. However, you will be required to submit a criminal background check. Failure to provide complete, accurate, and truthful information will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

1. Have you been convicted of a crime? Yes No

2. Have you enter a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, and a plea of nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, or have you received a deferred prosecution or prayer for judgment continued, to a criminal charge? Yes No

3. Have you otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime?
 Yes No

4. Do you have any criminal charges pending against you?
 Yes No

5. Have you ever been expelled, dismissed, suspended, placed on probation, or otherwise subject to any disciplinary sanction by any school, college, or university? Yes No

6. If you have ever served in the military, did you receive any type of discharge other than an honorable discharge? Yes No
 Currently Serving Never Served

You must promptly notify the Admissions Office in writing of any criminal charge, any disposition of a criminal charge, or any school, college, or university disciplinary action against you, or any type of military discharge other than an honorable discharge that occurs at any time after you submit this application. Your failure to do so will be grounds to deny or withdraw your admission, or to dismiss you after enrollment.

I have read this information carefully and I agree to abide by the policies and regulations of North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University and to the best of my knowledge, the information I have given is true. By signing this document, I understand that any misrepresentation of facts on this document will be cause for refusal of admission, cancellation of admission, or suspension from the University.

NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL AND TECHNICAL STATE UNIVERSITY

EXCHANGE STUDENT FINANCIAL GUARANTEE

Financial Requirements: Federal regulations require that North Carolina A&T State University have documentary evidence on file that a non-immigrant student has adequate financial means to pay all tuition, required fees, insurance (health, repatriation and medical evacuation) and living expenses during the approved period of study at the University. Insurance is MANDATORY through the University and has now been set as a “required fee”. Exceptions must be reviewed and approved by the Office of International Affairs prior to submitting a request to waive University insurance.

Exchange students must show adequate proof of funds outside those covered by the respective “Exchange Program Partner”. Generally, all tuition and required fees are covered by the program, thus exchange students need to show the means to pay the living expenses while studying at NC A&T by providing supporting bank documents and/or a bank letter. The original documents should be provided to the U.S. Embassy/Consulate where the exchange student is taking the visa interview. Copies can be provided to the OIA for issuance of DS-2019.

Exchange Students Living Expenses

One Semester
$4500 (USD)

Full Year (2 semesters)
$9000 (USD)

Please note that the University of North Carolina System requires enrollment in the Mandatory Insurance plan which includes health, repatriation and evacuation. The limits of coverage meet and/or exceed the requirements set forth by the Department of State for Exchange Students. The cost of this coverage is approximately $863.50 per semester.

New students will need a one-time “Settling-in” allowance of at least $1200 (USD) if they are not living on campus. Apartments and other housing options in the United States generally require deposits and there are other costs associated with establishing utility services (electricity, water, gas, telephone, etc.) as well.
